

#WellesleyCivility

As a member of the Wellesley community,

I promise to consciously and respectfully demonstrate

I will uphold the dignity of every person's story.

I promise to engage respectfully among identities.

I will respect the boundaries of others.

I will practice active listening and not interrupt.

I promise to create safe spaces and answer my community that reach every person we care to include.

I will honor our common personal life and all other pursuits on and off campus.

I pledge to make every effort to be heard, and to hear or our global community.
